Article 2

The Decision comes into effect on the day when it is passed.

The Decision is published on the Exchange internet page.

EXPLANATION

In accordance with the Rules of Business Operation of the Exchange, trading sessions are organized pursuant to the Exchange Calendar defined by the Board of Directors of the Exchange. Exceptionally, in case of extraordinary circumstances or circumstances which could not have been foreseen at the time of determining of the Exchange Calendar and due to which prompt reaction of the Exchange is necessary, by a decision the Exchange's Director may, for a particular market segment, establish a different calendar of trading sessions from the one defined by the Exchange Calendar. At the same time, according to the Exchange Rules, the duration of trading phases within a particular trading method, i.e. beginning, duration and ending of particular phases within a particular trading method, is determined by the Decision of the Director of the Exchange, or by the person authorized by him, for each particular segment of the Regulated Market, the MTP Belex or a security.

The Law on Public and Other Holidays in the Republic of Serbia (RS Official Gazette", no. 43/01, 101/07 and 92/11) governs the holidays observed as non-working days. The Law establishes the following public and religious holidays which are celebrated as non-working: New Year's Day – 1st and 2nd January; first day of Christmas – 7th January; Sretenje – Serbian Statehood Day – 15th and 16th February; Easter Holidays starting from Good Friday up to and including the second day of Easter; May Day – 1st and 2nd May; Armistice Day in the World War I – 11th November. At the same time, the Law defines that in case a public holiday (celebrated as a non-working) falls on Sunday, the first next working day shall be a non-working day. Considering all the above, Decision was made accordingly.
